

Faber Chimica s.r.l. is a certified ISO 9001 and ISO 14001 Italian based company who has been operating for over 25 years within the market of tile and stone care with the objective of constant research and product performance.

Faber Chimica s.r.l., today a reference for its reliability and product know-how, is specialized in the formulation and production of professional solutions for the treatment, maintenance and restoration of floors and surfaces in natural stone, granite, terracotta, marble, tile and wood.

Based on our onsite project experience and our collaboration with technical departments of various major Italian and overseas marble and ceramic producers, our laboratory researches and develops high-performance, innovative treatments while respecting ISO standards and procedures.

Mission:

"leadership within the market for product innovation, quality, service and respect for the environment"

Vision:

to be a reference of high reputation to those who operate in the field of transformation of materials such as marble, granite, stone, agglomerate, masonry surfaces, ceramic and tile. To be a guide to the construction sectors and industrial floor maintenance companies.

"We believe in the process of constant learning and achieving excellence is the best service to our clients and partners"

Our vast onsite experience is due to our participation in many International projects:

In Europe: Great Southern Airport Hotel Complex in Dublin, European Parliament House in Strasbourg, Société Générale Paris.

In Asia: New Lisboa Casino & Hotel, The Telford Plaza trade Centre, The Peninsula Hotel, the High Land Park, New Bright Building at Kowloon Bay, the Aon China Building, the New Legislative Council Building, the Marina Club house @ Sentosa Cove, Banco National Ultramarino-8 branches di Hong Kong, The government palace in Singapore, Tokyo metro, MGM Grand in Macau, Financial centre in Hong Kong

In Middle East:

Dubai Mall Dubai, Yas Hotel Abu Dhabi, Mall of Emirates Dubai, Intercontinental Hotel Dubai, The Address Downtown Dubai, Rixos the Palm Dubai.

Faber Chimica s.r.l. manufactures and distributes various product lines:

Faber "Professional", available to stone and tile producers, suppliers and professional end users.

Faber "Showroom", available to building & hardware merchants, retail and showrooms

Faber "Trattamenti", available to the DIY markets

Faber was awarded in Shanghai the "Golden stone award 2003" for best product quality.

Our product lines, supported by continuous technological studies and strengthened by our new ecological based line, have obtained outstanding success within the showrooms and retail areas due to high quality performances and to their "easy to use" policy.

Clear and complete technical information, product simplicity, "problem solving" orientation and quality after sales service make Faber a company to choose.
